He is a member of the Columbus Club and has been instrumental in helping several Clubs get Rotaracts started in various areas of our District. Chris Shulby will also be sharing his experiences as a student –President of the OSU Main Campus Rotaract Club last year. Since we are sharing sponsorship with the Rotary Clubs in Licking County to get a club started at COTC/OSUN, this is an important topic for us to learn from them as to how they have achieved sustained success so far.

News and notes

Board meeting: The Newark Rotary Board meeting will be at 4 p.m. Oct. 8 (Thursday). Everyone is welcome.

Time to make those auction donations: Donations are being requested for silent and “grand” auction items for the upcoming Halloween Spooktacular on Oct. 31

Last Week's Meeting

By Jane Simmons

President Nelson McCray opened the meeting and song leader Tom Slater led us in “Blow out the Candles” in celebration of the September birthdays. We also sang, “It's a Small World After All” in recognition of today's program on exchange students.

Bob McGaughy gave the invocation and led in the pledge.

Jeff Lawyer introduced guests: Visiting Rotarian Jay Callendar from the Granville Club. Kenneth Williams guest of John Carlson, David Coffman guest of Steve Layman, Calvin Robinson and Kerre Hamilton guests of Michelle Layman, and David Hile guest of Pat Jeffries.

Jeff Lawyer welcomed our students. Host Rotarian Tom Marcelain introduced Alexandrea Lorenza and Bridget Davis from Utica High School. Host Rotarian Deb Young introduced Dale Bassett and Jessica Hindman from Johnstown-Monroe. They all thanked the club and told us how much they enjoyed their time with us.

Announcements:

Marcia Downes shared with us the special exhibit at The Works in honor of all of our veterans. She also talked about Devon Seymour who was from Utica and joined the Marines right after graduation. He was killed 5 months at only 18 years of age. Devon Seymour's name will be indelibly etched in our history as a man who gave his life for our freedom.

The Bumblebee buzzed in with announcements about the Rotary auction. This year the invitations will be sent to your email to save on postage. If you do not have an email address you will receive the invitation at your home. The auction committee will meet at Erin's home next Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. The bumble bee buzzed out by leaving us words of wisdom “Come to the Auction - you will have a honey of a good time”.

Sergeant-At-Arms: Pat Jeffries fined the following members:

Jack Crockford and Don Ausbaugh each $1 for coming to the membership meeting on the wrong date. Bob Raker was fined $1 for giving his sympathies to Glenn Abel for a lost dog (that wasn't real). Alice Ann (Glenn's wife) was fined $1 for trying to fool the deer with her mums, but they ended up eating all of the flowers on top. Seth Ellington was fined $1 for jumping to the rescue to help Yesterday's Pub with all of the trash. Jerry Nethers was fined $1 for his golfing skills for the vintage open. Pat announced that January must have been a cold month by the number of September birthdays. All September birthdays were asked to donate a $1 for their birthday. Dave List announced that his daughter gave birth to a baby girl who weighed 7 pounds 7 ounces – he rounded this off to give a $10 donation.

Pat auctioned off two tickets to the OSU/Indian game donated by John Hinderer. The tickets sold for $100 to Jack Stickle. Terry Hill bought the tickets to the Wisconsin game for $200.

Program:

Rick Battat introduced our speaker Sandy Pyle with the Rotary Youth Exchange. She shared a DVD with us about the program. She welcomes the youth from this program to share their lives with her and once they come into her life they never leave. She said that the government is making it harder for the program because of all the paper work that is involved. Sandy asked us to please support the program.

The winning ticket this week was sold to Daniel Coffman, guest of Steve Layman. He gave his winnings to Eduardo Zanella as a parting gift.
