May 12-15: District Conference

This week's program: Debra Saffo is coordinator of Tech Prep at Central Ohio Technical College and Assistant-Director for the Heart of Ohio College Tech Prep Consortium. Prior to her current position, Debra retired from Columbus City Schools. During her tenure at CCS, she spent 17 years as a classroom business and computer science teacher and six years as a district administrator, serving in the capacity as district school reform facilitator, career education district curriculum coordinator, and High Schools That Work (HSTW) facilitator. Debra is co-founder of the NiKhar Group, a community-engagement consulting company. She sits on several faith-based and educational boards and advisory committees. She earned a bachelor of Arts in Education from Bowling Green State University and graduate studies at The Ohio State University. Debra and her family have been proud residents of the Licking County community for the past 13 years.

News and notes:

Auction coming up Oct. 30: Auction co-chairs Jane Simmons and Seth Ellington remind all of the Rotary Auction to be held Oct. 30 at Ohio State – Newark. Raffle tickets for the 60/40 cash drawings and tickets for the wine hutch/wine raffle are now taking place.

Don't park close if you're able: President Jeff reminds us that parking spaces near the door should be reserved for those Rotarians who need them.

Raffiki Trade School online: Visit <http://www.marafikiids.org/tradeschool.htm> to see more about the Newark Rotary Trade School in Kenya.

Last Week's Meeting

By Jerry Nethers

President Jeff Lawyer called us to order a little after noon and introduced Tom Slater to lead us in the singing of R-O-T-A-R-Y. Good Old Ray Wilson led us in prayer and in the Pledge. Tom returned for the singing of Helping Hands, which was a good fit for today's speaker.

President-elect Gary Baker introduced the following Rotarians and their guests: Bob McGaughy – wife Patricia; Charlie Lawrence – son Ed and wife Vera; Rod Yost – Mark Moyer; and Steve Herb – Keith Duffus.

Our student guests from North Fork, Cecila Feight and Zack Cornelius and from Johnstown-Monroe, Allison Coleman and Katie Frye, gave us their short speeches about their Rotary experience during the month of September. They were well spoken and appreciated not just the great food, but the work Rotary was doing in our community and around the world. Zack told a real groaner about the magician who was driving down the road and turned into a driveway!!

Announcements: Jane Simmons, co-chair of the auction donned her sailor cap to remind us of the upcoming Rotary Auction on Oct. 30. Lots of nice items could be yours. Be sure to buy raffle tickets and attend.

Special Presentation: For the past 25 years, our own Charlie Lawrence has spent a lot of time in Florida as a loaned Rotarian to the Brooksville Rotary Club #6950. In honor of his service and friendship at their club, they have arranged to have a maple tree with an appropriate “Charlie's Tree” plaque planted at our Rotary Playground. From the ovation Charlie and his wife Vera (62 years) received, we echo what a great friend and Rotarian he is still today.

Sergeant Jeffries: Victims of Pat included Gary Baker, Orville Varasso in honor of his 90th birthday, Steve Herb for not even sitting with his guest, Bob Barnes for his induction into the Trucker's Hall of Fame, Charlie Lawrence (seed money), Tom Mills and Bob Kent (retribution) and Joyce Malainy. Pat induced Glen Abel (an Illini) to pay a lot of money for the OSU-Indiana tickets.

Program: Our own John Daugherty introduced District Governor Calvin Gebhart. He is President and CEO of Citizens Bank and past president of the Ohio Bankers' Association. Calvin's complete biography was in last week's Rotogram.

Calvin was very complimentary of our club's work in doing what Rotarians do best...working in our community. He stressed four areas where Rotarians should focus:

The spirit of service, our individual club, “Every Rotarian- Every Year, and “One person can make a difference”. He told of his experiences gained through his Rotary life and how Rotary's war against Polio has been so successful. He echoed RI President Ray Klingensmith's slogan of Building Communities and Bridging Continents as a worthy guide for all Rotarians. This year's Rotary International Convention is in New Orleans so it is a great opportunity for us to attend.
