This Week's Program:

Frank Devlyn was the 2000-2001 president of Rotary International. He was the third Rotarian from Mexico to lead the world organization since its 1905 beginning in Chicago.

Devlyn is president of the Devlyn Optical Group of Mexico, a manufacturer, distributor and retailer of optical products. He is past president of Mexico's National Association of Opticians and Optometrists and of the optical section of the National Chamber of Industry. He also acts as national advisor for the Mexican Government's commission of health to the handicapped and serves on the board of the National Bank of Mexico, Inverlat Bank, the Mexican Red Cross and Goodwill Industries.

As an RI officer, Devlyn has promoted programs such as "World Community Service" by speaking to Rotary meetings in 34 countries. He is currently creating the largest used eyeglass bank in Mexico.

He's been a Rotarian since 1970. In Mexico, Devlyn was president of the Vecino Vigilante program, a nationwide neighborhood watch initiative sponsored by Rotary and other civic organizations. The program addresses crime through preventative neighborhood coalitions and works with local and national governments to ensure aggressive action is taken when a crime has been committed.

News & notes

Fireside chats Feb. 24: The club will not meet at its regular time on Feb. 24 so members can attend a fireside chat at another time that week – either Feb. 24 or 26. President Michele says the chats will be a discussion about the direction of the club. See sign up sheets on tables.

Salvation Army: We received a nice letter of thanks from the Salvation Army for our help with the bell ringing during the Christmas season. More than 900 families were helped with food and 2,433 kids received toys through the help of the Salvation Army.

Save the date for Camp Enterprise: Tom Cummiskey recently announced that Camp Enterprise will be held June 9-11th. As in the past, he is asking for cash donations and for promotional items for the student's "goodie bag" ... except for water bottles which they have more than enough of left over from past years. Also, be thinking about volunteering. Contact Tom or co-chair, Veronica Link.

Read With Me needs mentors: Jennifer Utrevis asked for volunteers, Rotarians and/or their spouses, to participate in the "Read With Me" program. Mentors are needed at Ben Franklin, Johnny Clem, Hillview, Carson and McGuffey. When our club first got started with the read with me program we had 17 volunteers. There are 5 helping right now. We have 21 kids with no adult male role model in the home. Please consider helping with this very worthwhile project.

Secretary help needed: Anyone interested in helping out in that role to please contact President Michelle while Ray Kress is recovering.

Last week's meeting

By Jerry Nethers and others

President Michelle Layman called the meeting to order.

Tom Slater led us in a "sure to be a Grammy winner" rendition of "I'm looking over the Advocate Paper" followed by a prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance led by Jack Stickle.

Nelson McCray announced we had no visiting Rotarians, but had a nice list of guests, including Gillian Doucette and Randy Green (Mike Shearer); Lou Mitchell (Ed Bohren); Seth Ellington (Pat Jeffries) and exchange student Eduardo. Student guests included Phillip Grizer and Emily Cole from Licking Heights.

"Penny-pinching" Pat Jeffries loaded the Rotary treasury by fining the following for a variety of notable accomplishments. Seth Ellington (for attending more meetings than his father); Bob Raker, Mike Higgins, Tony Adams (also his son's fault), and quite a nice list of Chamber Groundhog Day attendees including: David (Abs of steel) Trautman, Cheri Hottinger, Dan DeLawder, Rob Montagnese, Jim Matesich (for the new 120,000 oz. landmark), John (nice hair) Hinderer, and a special fine and recognition for our own JOHN WEAVER who received the prestigious John Alford Community Service Award.

We welcomed back Bill Baker, who is doing very well, and called on Jack Neely who introduced our program.

Linda Greiwe, Advocate president and publisher, and Managing Editor Michael Shearer spoke about the readership trends influencing newspapers and their Web sites. Online readership continues to grow rapidly while print readership lags. The average visit to NewarkAdvocate.com now lasts 14.5 minutes and readers spent 9.8 million minutes on the site in January. They also spoke about goals for 2009, live online coverage during the recent winter storm, how some newspapers are eliminating days of publication and why readers can post comments anonymously. There also was a question and answer about why the newspaper can't provide one-sided coverage of any topic, even critical community issues such as the Newark schools.

Jack Oberfield won the raffle (Again!!!)
