News and notes:

Move That Bus needs donations:

President-elect Gary Baker spoke about the "Move That Bus" campaign and our club's goal of getting a 35-passenger bus for the Montana De Luz orphanage in Honduras. We have currently secured $41,000, but need $60,000. Gary is looking for donors to buy a seat on the bus before Dec. 7. The board is willing to grant up to 5 Paul Harris fellows. It is going very well, but we still need a few thousand dollars. We would appreciate a couple more $ 1,000 donors to this very worthy cause.

Salvation Army bell ringers: Chuck

Moore needs bell ringers to help the Salvation Army on Saturday at the Kroger on Deo Drive. Times are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. See Chuck to sign up.

Get a new lunch buddy: President Jeff announced signups for the "Lunch Buddy" program at Ben Franklin Elementary School will be available at the Nov. 16 meeting. Carson Elementary and Ben Franklin are in particular need of our help. See Barn Quackenbush with questions.

Last Week's Meeting

By Jerry Nethers

The BEAT THE TEAM UP NORTH WEEK version of the Newark Rotary meeting was called to order by President Jeff Lawyer.

Jerry Jackson led us in the prayer and pledge followed by Rotarian Bill (Baa Baa) Baker's leadership in the acappella version of R-O-T-A-R-Y. An impromptu rendition of OH-IO was Jeff Lawyer's idea (and a good one).

Guests of Rotarians were too numerous to mention, so we didn't. But, we also had lots of special guests who were introduced by President-Elect Gary Baker. Visiting Rotarians were Mike Myers and President-elect Chad Fuller from the Newark-Heath club, Kathryn Baird from Pataskala, Larry Miller from Granville and Doug Bolger. Our student guests from Newark Catholic were Abby Morrow and Shawn Hughes and their counselor Tom Lusk, introduced by Tom Marcelain. From Newark High School we had Chelsea Steen and Bryan Ettenhofer and their Asst. Principal Mara Horgan who were introduced by Donn Alspach.

Licking County Treasurer/Auditor-to-be Mike Smith was our guest along with our congressman, Pat Tiberi. Lou Mitchell, a previous Service Above Self winner, was introduced because he's a special guy. Our own Matt Calhoun was the only former Buckeye football player in the audience but we had three former members of TBDBITL. They were our own Tom Brannon, Ken Bagent and our congressman Pat Tiberi. Pat recalled a trip to the Big House during his third year in the band. He recalled receiving gifts of snowballs, apple cores and verbal abuse from Wolverine fans. One "lovely lady" even tried to trip him. Tom Brannon recalled the Michigan game in 1955 when Ron Kramer actually bit the famous Hopalong Cassidy. But, we beat Michigan and kept them from going to the Rose Bowl.

Announcements: We still need two more bell ringers...see Chuck Moore. Barb Quackenbush welcomes more Big Brothers/Big Sisters helpers with the Lunch Buddies and Read to Me programs. See Fred Paetz or President Jeff to help with the Support our Troops effort.

Program:

We were honored to have Jon Woods, the director of the OSU Marching Band, and the most senior of all Big Ten band directors, here to lead his band into our meeting. Their intro number of the OSU Fight Song had all of us into the spirit of the WEEK right away.

Their selections included: Don't Stop Believin, Hang On Sloopy (from '65), Script Ohio, The O-H-I-O cheer, Carmen Ohio and a concluding Fight Song. Special guest conductor was our own Bill Baker. Jon Woods told us that when Jim Tressel came to OSU he started a new tradition of having the band and the football team together on the Sunday evening before the Michigan game to do a combined Script Ohio. It is always quite interesting. It is always a highlight of our Rotary year to have the OSU band with us.

GO BUCKS!!!!

The raffle went to Polio Plus.
